

“It is well-known that having your phone on your person when studying makes it harder to concentrate. The n1 study tip every professional gives is to put your phone in a different room. What does the university do? Make this physically impossible! It makes no sense to me.”

